

THE CHILDREN'S CORNER

When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified him, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left. Luke 23:33 (NIV)

The puzzle is based on Luke 23:33-43 (NIV).

REFLECTION

Today's scripture summarized: The first reading (II Samuel 5: 1-3) describes all the tribes of Israel choosing of Israel's second king, the great David as their “shepherd” and “commander.” His successful 40-year reign became the model for the hoped-for Messiah or Christ the anointed one in later Judaism. In the second reading (Col 1: 12-20), Paul quoting an early Christian hymn, assures the Colossian Christians of: (1) the primacy of Christ over and above all angels and cosmic powers; (2) the value and necessity of the cross; and (3) the cosmic effects of salvation.

Today's gospel (Lk 23: 35-43), referring to the sign board hung by the order of Pilate on the cross of Jesus, “Jesus the Nazarene, King of the Jews,” presents it as an imperial admission of the kingship of Christ, although it was intended to serve as a three-fold mockery. It prompted the Jewish leaders to call out, “He saved others, let him save himself if he is the messiah of God” and the soldiers to shout at Jesus, “If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself” and the thief on the left side to challenge Jesus, “Aren't you the Messiah?

Then save yourself and us.” Pilate probably had his own reasons to write the inscription on the board. It was to protect himself from being charged with bowing to the pressure of the mob; to mock Jesus and thereby to appease the Jewish leaders; and to forewarn other would-be revolutionaries that their rebellion against the empire would be similarly extinguished. But Pilate was unknowingly accepting the person and mission of Jesus as King and Savior. The repentant thief accepts Jesus as his Savior, calling Jesus Jeshuah, or Jesus, meaning “the Lord saves!” Jesus assured the thief that he had the power to promise a share in his everlasting reign.

We pray for grace to assess our commitment to Jesus Christ the King. May He take control over our lives as follow His lesson of humble service to the truth.

THE 4 DEGREES OF HONOR IN CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY
(Cont'd from last week)

3. Protodulia – Highest Honor Among Saints
The term Protodulia comes from proto (“first”) and douleia. It designates the first place among the saints, traditionally attributed to Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus and protector of the Holy Family.
Among all saints, Joseph stands closest to Jesus and Mary, honored for his obedience, purity, and silent faith. The Church recognizes his unparalleled example of fatherly love and spiritual leadership, giving him this singular distinction.

4. Dulia – Veneration of the Saints
Finally, Dulia is the general term for the veneration and respect offered to all saints.
It acknowledges their holiness, faith, and closeness to God. Christians honor the saints not as gods, but as friends and models of holiness—people who reflect God’s glory through their lives.
Through their intercession, the faithful seek inspiration, guidance, and prayers, recognizing that these holy men and women continue to participate in God’s divine love.

Theological Harmony
This hierarchy of honor preserves the central truth of Christianity: only God is worshipped.
Mary and the saints are honored because they point humanity toward God. Their lives exemplify divine grace at work, and their intercession strengthens the Church on earth.
Together, Latria, Hyperdulia, Protodulia, and Dulia illustrate the unity between heaven and earth—a communion of love that glorifies God through His faithful servants.

Reflection
Every act of true Christian veneration leads to Christ Himself.
When we honor Mary and the saints, we celebrate what God has done in them. Their holiness magnifies the greatness of the Creator.
Thus, the Four Degrees of Honor remind us that all reverence, at its deepest core, flows back to the source of all goodness—God alone, who is worthy of Latria.

The End .

Prayer for the Discernment of A New Bishop

O God, Eternal Shepherd, who govern your flock with unchanging care, grant to your Church in St. George’s-in-Grenada a shepherd who will faithfully follow in the footsteps of your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Give us a Bishop filled with wisdom and understanding so that, guided by your Holy Spirit, he may be a faithful pastor, a prudent teacher, wise in discerning the needs of our diocese and region. Strengthen him to uphold the gospel of truth, to lead your flock with humility and courage and to build up the Body of Christ in love and holiness. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Immaculate Mary, Mother of the Church, pray with us and for us. Amen.

Welcome!

Today we honour Christ as our King, and we honour him best by helping to spread his Kingdom. Our sins are a blight on our service of Jesus Christ. May He, who forgave the repentant thief, forgive us too.

First Reading: From the second Book of Samuel chapter 5 verses 1 to 3. This tells how David became king of a united country. His kingship prefigures the universal kingship of Christ.

Second Reading: From the letter of St Paul to the Colossians chapter 1 verses 11 to 20. Christ Jesus is the head of the Church and Lord of all creation.

Gospel: According to Luke chapter 23 verses 35 to 43. Christ reigned from the cross and brought salvation to one of the thieves crucified with him.
